

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

At time of application, student must:

Be an undergraduate student currently enrolled (part-time or full-time) in college or university (two or four-year program)

Be a U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident

Have at least one semester of study completed as of this application

Preference is given to upperclassman students and Connecticut residents.

Completed application is due by e-mail on April 20, 2018. All sections are required.

Applicant Information

Name: _____

Home Address: _____

City/State/Zip Code: _____

Telephone Number: _____

Best E-mail Address to Reach Me: _____

Name of College/Projected Graduation: _____

How I Heard about Camp: (please circle all that apply)

Social Media | College/University | Family or Friend | CT IFS | Bank | Other _____

Statement of Interest

In no more than 400 words, please define your interest in this program and detail how you plan to make use of the opportunity.

Student Transcript

Please provide a copy of your current college transcript. Student portal versions are acceptable.

Resume

Please provide your resume to-date.

Academic Reference To be completed by the professor of a course in which you are currently enrolled.

Professor Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

E-mail Address: _____

Course you teach in which applicant is enrolled: _____

Applicant's current course grade: _____

Description of why applicant is a good candidate for Banking Boot Camp:

Professor's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Statement of Commitment

If selected to participate in CT IFS' Banking Boot Camp, I commit to attending all of the daily sessions for the 5-day program, May 21 - 25, 2018. I understand that program tuition is due upon acceptance into the program and must be paid before the start of Banking Boot Camp.

Applicant's Signature _____ Date _____

Application Submission - Deadline April 20, 2018

E-mail your application materials to CT IFS Program Director Meredith Gazdzinski at mgazdzinski@connecticutIFS.com.

Participants are selected by a blind review of information presented as part of this application. Decisions will be communicated beginning April 30, 2018.