

Over 5,400 companies, firms and establishments are categorized as part of Connecticut's IFS Industry. (CT DOL, 2009)

Connecticut has the highest U.S. concentration of financial analysts and underwriters. (U.S. DOL, BLS, 2008)

One new job in IFS results in an additional 1.83 jobs in the Connecticut economy. (CERC, 2008)

Did you know?

Over 118,000 Connecticut residents are employed by the Insurance and Financial Services (IFS) industry - their expertise and productivity tied to some of the most critical economic factors in Connecticut.

Legislation pertinent to one of Connecticut's largest employment sectors is now under consideration.

Know the facts on IFS and vote to sustain one of Connecticut's most competitive and technological industries.

www.connecticutIFS.com

Strengthening & Advancing Connecticut's IFS Industry

Connecticut ranks third in U.S. for percentage of total employment in Finance and Insurance. (2009 Economic Review)

State premium tax revenues from the insurance industry exceeded $214 million in FY 2007-08.

The Insurance and Financial Services sector accounts for 15.5% of Connecticut's Gross State Product. (2008)